

Volunteer Committee Members for Highland & Moray Sailing Development Group

RYA Scotland is seeking to recruit enthusiastic volunteers to be part of one of the original Sailing Development Groups – Highland & Moray Sailing.

The group will be fundamental in the development of a progressive, developing sport that is able to meet the needs of the governing body, clubs, classes, training centres and athletes in Scotland.

The group has a variety of different roles and responsibilities aimed at helping the development of sailing in all of its forms and represent the interests of the member group.

RYA Scotland is currently looking to recruit people for the following positions:

- Vice Chair
- Secretary

The Commitment we are looking for:

Meetings are held 3 - 4 times per annum, in locations around the Highland & Moray area. The term of office is generally 2 years starting in May 2011, and there is the possibility of re-election. You will need to be able to travel to the different locations around the area mentioned previously. You will be a representative for the organisation and may be required to represent its interests at external events. It is likely that on average some 2 hours per week will be required.

Our Commitment to you:

Training is available to support you in this role, and out of pocket expenses for the attendance of external events.
